DAILY FORECAST

Jonathan Seagull

worldnumerology.com

YOUR 100 DAY DAILY NUMBER FORECAST

Your Daily Number Forecast is based on four cycles, including your Personal Month and Day cycles, for a more detailed and specific forecast.

Keep in mind that cycles don't start or end at the exact month, day, or hour they are supposed to last. There is always an overlap on either end – a new cycle begins to be felt while the old one is still in place, and the old cycle can continue to influence you for a while when the new cycle has already started. For yearly cycles, the overlap can be a couple of months at either end of the cycle. For monthly cycles, it tends to be two to four days, and daily cycles can overlap into the early morning hours or begin to be felt the evening before.

Remember also, that a forecast is based on the expectation of certain effects or events, but there are other influences in play as well. Still, knowing some of those influences in advance is a powerful advantage.

Thank you for your interest in the art and science of numerology.

IDEAS & CONNECTIONS - A 1 DAY

Hello Jonathan, today's numbers are 1, 28, 10, 5, 4

For the fourth time this month the 5 and 1 team up, but this time the 1 is based on 28. This combination usually relates to a connection between your career or financial circumstances and other people. You might run into someone who will be of help in this area, or hear a great suggestion from a friend or co-worker.

Today's influences are equally divided between the practical and the emotional. A change in your normal routine or environment is also likely. Additionally, this combination can lend a practical, efficient state of mind. It is a day to ponder smart money-saving (or money-making) ideas. It is also favorable for focusing on business plans and long-term vision.

June 24, 2025

PERCEPTION & CLARITY - A 2 DAY

The intuitive 11 has the potential to give unusual clarity and insight into your world and the people around you. However, the true benefit of today's numbers will likely be directed toward your career, business, or other project-related venture. The combination of 2, 11, and 5 delivers positive results through involving others in the decisions you seek.

Eliciting the support of others could be particularly helpful today, since the ability to express yourself may be somewhat limited by the presence of a negative 3. You might profit more by listening than by talking. This sequence could also make you a little accident prone, so be aware of your surroundings and your actions.

Today's sensitive, intuitive energy is favorable for relationship issues and romance. It can help us be more perceptive to the motivations and needs of others. If possible, relax and enjoy a social setting this evening.

June 25, 2025

RECHARGE YOUR BATTERIES - A 3 DAY

This day should be devoted to play and creativity, but even if you can't take the day off, you would benefit from taking a little break.

Numerology views the 1 as a symbol of dominance, independence, and ambition. It views the 2 as sensitive, emotive, and cooperative. The 3, today's dominant influence, is the playful child, a result of the merging of 1 and 2.

Today's 3 is based on 30. Scattered energy, a lively imagination, and perhaps even some crazy ideas are part of what you can expect with today's combination. Consequently, planning, details, and routine duties are not ideally supported.

Don't play hooky, just take a break from some of the more routine or pressing matters in your life. Indulge your imagination, play music, or have fun with someone close to you.

SLOW AND STEADY; PROGRESS - A 4 DAY

Hello Jonathan, today's numbers are 4, 31, 5, 1

The grounded, steady, plodding, dependable 4 is in charge today. Although this generally means progress, it almost always feels slow moving, which can be frustrating. However, the vibrant, dynamic energy of the 5 counteracts some of that, and can even produce bursts of action and excitement. For that reason, you might actually be surprised at how much you accomplished by the end of the day.

Business, career, and financial matters tend to be favorable under this combination. Negotiation and contract issues are less favored (your communication skills might be somewhat diminished today). Addressing relationship and personality conflicts is best avoided for the same reason.

It is a good night to socialize and try something out of the ordinary.

June 27, 2025

YOU GOT MOJO! - A 5 DAY

Hello Jonathan, today's numbers are 5, 32, 5, 0

Yesterday's sluggish energy may linger early in the day, but it should quickly be replaced by the dynamic power of today's 5 based on 32. It is important to be flexible and ready for whatever comes your way. Today's combination often challenges your willingness to be open-minded and intellectually supply. It is a good day for people-oriented careers, such as sales and consulting.

This number sequence can elicit confrontation when faced with prejudice or injustice. It brings a greater awareness of these serious issues. Today, inequality and intolerance wave a red flag - and you are the bull. Relationships are favored as long as you keep things light. Serious discussions, important decisions, and long-term commitments are better handled another day.

June 28, 2025

DON'T SELL YOURSELF SHORT - A 6 DAY

Hello Jonathan, today's numbers are 6, 33, 5, 1

If you have the urge to let go of something that has been weighing you down, take a moment to ensure you are acting for the right reasons. Beware of making excuses to yourself that evade the whole story.

Today's combination suggests you might face someone trying to take advantage of you. If so, it will likely be someone who holds authority or power over you, perhaps your boss (or your teenager?). When the giving 6 dominates, the prospect for others to prevail increases. However, today's 6 is based on 33, which puts your mental reflexes in top form. This can inspire you to respond with direct and uncompromising force, possibly to everyone's astonishment.

Relationship issues will probably be a top priority today, but focus on your health and healthy lifestyle choices as well. If there is room for improvement, this is a good day to take a critical look.

A STILL, SMALL VOICE - A 7 DAY

Hello Jonathan, today's numbers are 7, 34, 5, 2

If you feel a little out of sorts, perhaps unmotivated, remember that the probing, existential influence of the 7 can be a blessing in disguise. While the 8 (tomorrow's dominant influence) tends to be overrated as a money and power number, the 7 is consistently under estimated as a strategist and problem solver.

As a rule, the more willingly you absorb the intangible influences of this ethereal and delicate number, the more generous and rewarding the material rewards offered by the 8. (Hence, they stand side by side.)

Make it a quiet evening. Take time to reflect on what is important to you, or to analyze your current circumstances. If possible, romance and emotional issues are best left to another day.

CHANGING STRATEGIES AND JUST REWARDS - AN 8 DAY

With an 8 based on 35 ruling the day, you should see plenty of action and sharing of ideas. Your plans could change in response to fresh information or a new contact.

A potential downside to this hectic, promising day is the inconvenient tendency of this combination to hold us accountable for past actions. This could involve a lie, an omission, or unfair treatment that comes back to bite you. Even then it would likely be a relief, as today's numbers are also concerned with removing obstacles. Clearing up past misconduct clears the path ahead.

Romance could be front and center. If so, it likely carries a playful overtone.

July 1, 2025

LISTEN TO YOURSELF - A 7 DAY

Hello Jonathan, today's numbers are 7, 6, 1

The early part of this month has several days when conflicting influences compete for attention. Today, it is the outgoing, people-loving 6 versus the introverted, secretive 7. Although the monthly cycle is generally warm and social, today's influence directs your attention inside. As a result, you might be looking for quiet "me" time to use for self-reflection.

This number sequence can elicit a heightened sense of purpose. It is a good day to analyze bottled-up feelings, although this is best done in private. Counseling and the feedback from friends and family are often helpful, but inner reflection can bring clarity as well. Although you have important responsibilities to attend to, try to shift as much attention as possible to your inner world and the intangible realm.

Romance and personal relationships are less favored on 7 days. However, sharing thoughts or philosophical discussions with someone close could be uplifting this evening.

July 2, 2025

RESPONSIBILITY EQUALS REWARD - AN 8 DAY

Today the numbers 6 and 8 team up to give your professional life a boost (although the effect may not be obvious immediately).

You should be in optimal form mentally, so sharpen your focus today. Be mindful, however, that this combination sometimes allows pride or jealousy to keep us from taking advantage of an opportunity. Don't allow your ego to get in the way.

Although success could be looming on the horizon, it may take time for you to recognize it. Continue to work toward your goals; it is through effort that we reap rewards. Be conscious of expectations, and allow success to come in whatever form it takes.

July 3, 2025

NOT WHAT IT SEEMS - A 9 DAY

Hello Jonathan, today's numbers are 9, 6, 3

Since both the 6 and the 9 are loving, altruistic influences you may find yourself in situations that tug at your heartstrings today. When these numbers share the limelight, your priorities tend to shift from people who are close to you to concerns that affect society at large. The 6 directs its nurturing traits toward family, friends, and the local community. The caring, idealistic 9 focuses on broad humanitarian concerns. Together, they are unrivaled in their willingness to help others.

On a personal level, this combination can bring changes or events that are different than they initially appear. Something that seems like misfortune at first could turn out to be a great opportunity.

The evening offers a creative, playful energy that has the potential to bring you closer to someone you care about.

July 4, 2025

THE ART OF LISTENING - A 1 DAY

Hello Jonathan, today's numbers are 1, 10, 6, 5

Overall, this month requires you to pay attention to family and friends and may be more socially demanding than usual. But today, with the 1 dominant, it is also a day to focus on yourself and forge ahead.

At the beginning of a cycle (here, the month's cycle), you may not have all the information or experience you need to fully understand upcoming events. Consequently, you might not be able to see the big picture. If you are beginning a new project or experiencing a change in your circumstances, take time to listen to your trusted advisors. This could be challenging; the independent nature of today's numbers can make you too stubborn to accept advice. Assertiveness can work to your advantage, but being hardheaded will most likely work against you.

The afternoon or evening could bring a shift in expectations, producing clarity and a more realistic view of your prospects. The possibility of meeting someone new is also heightened.

July 5, 2025

YOUR SENSITIVE SIDE - A 2 DAY

Hello Jonathan, today's numbers are 2, 11, 6, 4

It's a good day to deal with personality issues and other conflicts. The 11/2 increases your intuition and makes you more aware of the needs and motivations of others. It also heightens your sensitivity, which could make you feel more vulnerable and emotional than usual.

The intuitive intelligence that comes with an 11/2 day in a 6 month can bring renewed clarity to your perspective regarding your goals and relationships. If possible, take time today to review your circumstances. Find a way to relax and enjoy yourself this evening. Social events and romance are favored.

July 6, 2025

CHARISMA & CREATIVITY - A 3 DAY

Hello Jonathan, today's numbers are 3, 12, 6, 3

All numbers divisible by 3 are creative, although in very different ways. The 6 is visual, drawn to painting, sculpting, and ceramics. The 9 is also visual, but attracted to fields that combine color and materials such as fashion design, interior design, and architecture. The 3 is interested in self-expression and communication, writing, dancing, and poetry.

All 3 creative numbers are in place today, lending the opportunity to make improvements in your environment. Gardening, decor, and other creative projects are favored, and careers that are innovative and artistic are strongly supported.

Thanks to the influence of this number sequence, your charisma should be enhanced, drawing people to you. Keep your eyes open for a younger or less fortunate person who needs you right now; be generous with your time and attention.

July 7, 2025

A FOCUS ON DETAILS - A 4 DAY

Hello Jonathan, today's numbers are 4, 15, 6, 2

With even numbers ruling the day, you should be able to get things done efficiently and quickly. Today's 4 tells you to be focused and diligent. Pay attention to details and follow through on your commitments; there is no room for procrastination or cutting corners. Today's numbers have practical traits that will help keep you on track.

With a 2 present relationship issues might be problematic. Do your best to avoid confrontation.

This combination can make you more aware of your limitations (and your mortality), sometimes causing a vague feeling of depression or nostalgia. If possible, plan for a social evening and keep things light. Save analyzing and contemplation for a more internal, reflective day.

July 8, 2025

OPPOSING ENERGIES - A 5 DAY

The influences today are direct opposites. Although they have the potential to cause internal conflict, they can also complement one another, giving you the best of both energies.

When the stable, loving, sacrificing 6 and the adventurous, impulsive 5 team up, anything can happen. Unexpected changes are a given, and because today's 5 is based on 14, it suggests the effect will be felt mainly in your work environment.

The vacillating nature of this number is not the best support for important decisions or commitments, so you may want to postpone them to another day (perhaps 3 days from now on your next 8 day). At the same time - and here is the contradiction of the 5 and 6 - keep your eyes open for an opportunity that will benefit your personal as well as your professional life.

July 9, 2025

MATTERS OF THE HEART - A 6 DAY

The harmonious 6, the number of love and caring, is the influence ruling both your month and day cycle. This combination puts relationships on the front burner, and helps you resolve conflicts with friends, family, and co-workers. Romance also fairs well.

However, there is an atypical discordant aspect clinging to today's number sequence. A 6 based on 15 can produce feelings of guilt (real or imagined) and an exaggerated sense of responsibility, which could leave you gullible. Be mindful about who you allow in today, and try not to make promises you might later regret. On the upside, this is a good day for business and financial decisions.

July 10, 2025

A REFLECTIVE DAY - A 7 DAY

Hello Jonathan, today's numbers are 7, 16, 6, 1

You may be operating at a slower speed today. If the last few days awakened strong emotions, you could be feeling the need for reflection and self-examination. Today is a good day to analyze your circumstances, and consider what you want moving forward.

Today's combination could leave you feeling a little moody. Unless they are important issues, try to ignore emotional ups and downs today.

The 16 (the numerological equivalent of the Tarot's Fallen Tower) is also in play today. It has a self-destructive side that can cause you to make impulsive decisions based on strong emotions or unfounded fears. However, this is also the number for re-birth - the Phoenix rising from the ashes as a better, wiser you. For that reason, the 16 is the most spiritual of all numbers, and the focus of today's influence.

A quiet, reflective evening or reading up on a subject that interests you is favored. If possible business, finance, and relationships are best left to another day.

July 11, 2025

SUCCESS REQUIRES ACTION - AN 8 DAY

Hello Jonathan, today's numbers are 8, 17, 6, 2

The powerful 8 and the responsible 6 are nicely aligned to promote your career, improve finances, and support projects. The day requires practicality, taking a rational, logical approach, and avoiding conflicting emotions.

On the downside, the 2 is standing in the wings sending negative, jealous vibes so do your best to avoid relationship issues. Support could come from an unlikely source. If so, it will be up to you to overcome any reluctance to accept it.

To compound the varied influences, today's 8 is based on 17, which often points to situations involving intellectual or religious dominance. If this relates to you, don't allow outside forces to undermine your independence or inhibit your growth.

Spending time with people you are close to is favored this evening. You will likely benefit from the comfort of family and good friends.

HONEST CRITICISM & CHANGE - A 9 DAY

After a particularly internal day two days ago, and a day fully focused on the material world yesterday, today may find you sensing change, but without a clear idea of its nature. If you feel a little at a loss today, no worries, you will find solid footing soon enough. Progress is likely even if you feel a lack of conviction.

This combination can bring criticism from someone who is usually supportive. However, criticism does not always mean a lack of support - a real friend will offer sincere assessment when you need it.

When an 18 enters the picture, it often indicates the need to eliminate something to make room for the new. It suggests you might be in the closing stages of a project or relationship, or are preparing to change a long-time habit or tradition. If so, this could be a good time to finalize that change.

EXTRA EFFORT - A 1 DAY

Today's influence adds to the momentum of the last two days. The 1 delivers drive and determination - use it to take charge and make bold steps forward.

The leadership qualities of the 1 can inspire others to look to you for direction. It helps you discover original ideas and unique solutions. It also bundles and focuses your energy, but Gurdjieff's extra-effort rule still applies. To succeed you must do more than is required of you.

During a 6 month, the highly charged energy of the 10 tends to pull others into your wake. This can feel like a burden, but it often proves to be an asset down the road.

A take-charge attitude and being decisive will also benefit your personal relationships today.

THE POWER OF LOVE - A 2 DAY

Hello Jonathan, today's numbers are 2, 20, 6, 4

Love and romance rule the day. When the 6 teams up with 20, delicate but resilient influences dominate. This combination heightens your intuition and sensitivity, making you more aware of the subtle signs around you. It is a day for relationships, personal and otherwise.

The sensitive, harmonious nature of today's combination can help resolve issues with anger, resentment, and guilt. However, you might also feel emotionally vulnerable or overly dramatic. If so, use today's enhanced awareness to take an objective look at yourself, as well as the people and circumstances around you. Taking a reasoned approach will make you more rational and help keep your emotions under control.

The line between your personal and professional life might be blurred today, in a positive way. A genuine, personal touch can boost your career as well as your personal life.

July 15, 2025

A VIBRANT MIND - A 3 DAY

Hello Jonathan, today's numbers are 3, 21, 6, 3

The opportunity to impress others continues. The verbal, creative, inspiring 3 is in charge today. Additionally, the numbers behind it, 6 and 21, are divisible by 3, making this a day when playful, creative, impulsive, and perhaps even irresponsible behavior can actually bring positive returns.

Your ability to think outside the box and look at problems from a unique perspective should be greatly enhanced today. It can help you find a solution to a stubborn predicament (perhaps more than one). Today's combination suggests this will most likely apply to your personal life.

Important decisions and financial commitments might be better supported when the 8 returns five days from today. However, romance is highly favored. Your charm and charisma should be powerful assets in your personal as well as your professional life.

CHANGING PRIORITIES - A 4 DAY

Hello Jonathan, today's numbers are 4, 22, 6, 2

The influences over the last few days have mainly affected people-related issues involving inspiration, relationships, communication, and creativity. Today's numbers influence mundane, routine matters.

The 4 brings diligence, focus, and attention to detail, which can be helpful in getting things done. Additionally, when the highly charged 22 is in play, you're asked to deal with duties and responsibilities you may have postponed. It also requires you to step up to the plate, so expect to be challenged today. There is no room for slacking.

The 2 could deliver a challenging influence. If so, it is likely to involve disagreement with a co-worker (today's numbers focus on career more than your personal life).

Romance and relationship issues are better saved for another day. After a (potentially) busy day, you may want to enjoy a quiet evening.

July 17, 2025

FREEDOM AND COMMITMENT - A 5 DAY

Hello Jonathan, today's numbers are 5, 23, 6, 1

Responsibility, commitment, and sacrifice are the issues playing major roles during this 6 month. When the freedom-loving 5 dominates the daily cycle it can produce noticeable discord.

The dutiful 6 playing tug-of-war with the somewhat careless and rebellious 5 could make you feel irritable and impatient, especially toward the people you care about the most. Be careful not to make impulsive decisions you might regret later.

Today's 5 hides both a 2 and a 3, which affects friendship and romantic relationships. A casual word spoken at the wrong time might create a misunderstanding, so be mindful of what you say and how you say it.

The positive aspects of the day revolve around your professional life and projects. Today's traits help you move swiftly and enhance your ability to be versatile, adaptable, and quick thinking.

July 18, 2025

BUILT-IN HAPPINESS - A 6 DAY

Hello Jonathan, today's numbers are 6, 24, 6, 0

Today, the energy of the loving, caring 6 is present in abundance; joined by the 9 they have great potential to bring insight and happiness.

You could say there are two kinds of happiness - the happiness that is a consequence of something external, like getting something new or falling in love, and the happiness that naturally exists within you. Your inborn happiness seems to bubble to the surface more easily when you are motivated by concern for others rather than yourself. The influences today foster precisely that kind of happiness. Count on your heart being touched more than once today, as empathy and tolerance are an inherent part of today's number sequence.

Your career can be positively affected as well. Your negotiation skills should be strong, but do your homework before dealing with financial matters.

It is a good night to spend with someone you are close to.

July 19, 2025

FINDING YOUR CENTER - A 7 DAY

Hello Jonathan, today's numbers are 7, 25, 6, 1

The 7 is normally an inwardly focused, introverted number. But when it is based on 25, the 7 is infused with a desire to interact, although it still retains its philosophical and spiritual focus. As a result, you may find yourself daydreaming and absent-minded, but also willing to reach out and share your thoughts.

Dreams and psychic insights are common with today's combination. This can indirectly bring greater clarity and understanding about current issues. On a practical level, the contradicting traits of the introverted 7 and the extroverted 2 and 5 sharpen you mentally. More importantly, it enhances your ability to notice subtle signs you might have missed on another day. Heightened intuition can be useful for reading people around you, and finding solutions that have been elusive.

July 20, 2025

LOVE & MONEY - AN 8 DAY

Today's combination suggests you could be feeling the effects, positive or negative, of past actions. With karmic numbers present, it is not a good day to gamble or make impulsive decisions. It is, however, a good day for career, careful long-term planning, and progress.

When an 8 based on 26 rules the day, family issues and finances have a greater chance of affecting one another. Be generous and loving, but think twice about engaging in business ventures with family or friends during this month. In other words, gifts - either given or received - are favored; however, loans between you and those close to you are not well supported.

If you are single, mingle. If you are in a relationship, give it extra attention.

SEEKING CLARITY - A 9 DAY

If you knew every person in a small group well enough, you would probably be able to predict how they would respond to a given situation.

Understanding the way a combination of numbers responds in a particular environment is similar. Today, the 9, 27, 6 and 3 are the prominent players (in that order, with the 3 playing an adverse role). This line-up delivers uncommon clarity and a desire to chip away at excess baggage. It indicates you may be ready to make a needed change in your life. In this configuration, today's numbers have the potential to create a true 'ah-ha' moment that could change your direction.

The adverse 3, however, might make it difficult for you to express yourself, so give your thoughts time to mature before sharing your feelings or ideas.

Hello ~first~, today's numbers are 1, 28, 10, 6, 5

Hello Jonathan, today's numbers are 1, 28, 10, 6, 5

Today's combination could bring back a relationship issue from the past. If so, it might be that something you thought was a minor issue at the time turns out to have been a sleeping dog, now wide awake and growling.

Whatever the issue, it likely relates to your sense of independence and individuality. If someone is trying to bend you to their will, today's traits should inspire the courage and confidence you need to stand up for yourself.

In keeping with today's focus on independence, be mindful not to compromise where you feel you shouldn't (in both your professional and personal life). Your independence and individuality are too important to use as bargaining chips.

INTUITION AND PRACTICAL RESULTS - A 2 DAY

Hello Jonathan, today's numbers are 2, 29, 11, 6, 4

As a rule, even numbers are considered practical while odd numbers are more idealistic. Today the 6 and 2 pair up to produce a practical, efficient influence. However, this 2 is based on 11, the most intuitive of all numbers. Consequently, instead of logic you might have intuitive insights, but still delivering valid ideas. It is a day to follow your instincts.

Today's combination can also help you maneuver out of a tight spot, most likely concerning an already vulnerable association. Matters of the heart are favored on this emotionally charged, somewhat vulnerable day. You might be a shoulder for someone to cry on - or the reverse.

This combination is favorable for career and business (intuition can be helpful here as well). On the downside, you may find yourself procrastinating or ignoring routine chores, which could backfire. Not to worry, you should have the right mindset for that the day after tomorrow, when the efficient, detail-oriented 4 returns.

AN INNOVATIVE, CREATIVE DAY - A 3 DAY

Hello Jonathan, today's numbers are 3, 30, 6, 3

The 3 dominates today, lending a fresh, innovative energy that can bring enhanced charisma and a heightened sense of humor. Although it is witty and clever, the downside of the 3 can be somewhat superficial. Make an effort to be sensitive to others today.

The unfocused energy in this line-up is not usually favorable for long-term planning or financial matters. If you work in a detail-oriented field, are in management or organization, or work with numbers (unless you are a numerologist!) it could be a frustrating day. Consequently, you might want to wait until tomorrow to handle important details or routine activities. However, the enhanced creativity that is present supports creative careers and is also excellent for working with children.

Tonight, be social and have a little fun or relax doing something you enjoy.

July 25, 2025

DOWN-TO-EARTH, BUT FLYING HIGH - A 4 DAY

Hello Jonathan, today's numbers are 4, 31, 6, 2

The 4 can bring a demanding day that requires focus, but it also carries the supportive traits needed to make progress. A 4 based on 31 combines efficient, realistic influences with creativity and originality. This team can help you do more and do it better, especially in career and project-related pursuits. It is a good day to strategize about your future or make healthy lifestyle or dietary changes. Anything that requires discipline is favored.

However, there are contradictions within these numbers as well. Although you should be more disciplined and focused, other influences could leave you feeling doubt or a lack of confidence, mainly regarding relationships. Your attention will be better spent on practical issues rather than matters of the heart today.

July 26, 2025

CHANGING TIDES - A 5 DAY

Today, with the opposing traits of the 6 and 5 rocking your boat you may discover you have been entertaining unrealistic expectations (though your actual goals may be realistic). If so, the more flexible you are the easier it will be to adapt to changing circumstances and newfound clarity.

Although the day could feel hectic, and you might need to accept a more realistic point of view, this combination is a positive influence for career (especially if you are in marketing, sales, promotion, or a creative profession).

It's a good night for a social evening, but be aware that the 5 can lack discipline and likes to indulge.

July 27, 2025

CONNECTING YOUR HEART - A 6 DAY

Hello Jonathan, today's numbers are 6, 33, 6, 0

Today's combination puts the spotlight on your emotional connection to family and friends. It also places emphasis on the need to be truthful. The 33, more than any other number, has the potential to expose secrets and true motivations. This can relate to unvoiced concerns we keep from ourselves as well as others. Although the combination can bring emotional ups and downs, the 6 focuses on healing which can strengthen your relationships.

External events will probably have less of an impact than matters of the heart today; however, it is also favorable for career and projects. Numbers divisible by 3 are creative, so take advantage of today's traits to try something innovative and different.

Romance and commitment are also favored under the warm, caring 6 influence.

July 28, 2025

TIME TO SMELL THE ROSES - A 7 DAY

Hello Jonathan, today's numbers are 7, 34, 6, 1

It is the end of a 6 month focused on practical issues. Your duties and responsibilities may have increased (or felt like they did) with people close to you demanding your time and attention.

With the 7 dominating today, it is a good time to create a little distance from the concerns of others. Try to find some quiet time to regroup. Take care of important responsibilities, but don't push yourself to do more than is necessary. Your intuition and sense of timing should be sharper than usual, which can help you keep things moving without too much personal effort.

Due to the tendency to withdraw, relationship issues are not usually favored under this inward influence. Upon reflection, you may feel it has been a somewhat "off" day. If possible, make it a quiet evening and take advantage of the 7's desire for contemplation or an intellectual pursuit.

EVOLUTION: TODAY ABSORBING YESTERDAY - AN 8 DAY

The concept of cause and effect, action and reaction, is so basic you would think each of us would be conscious of it every moment. Unfortunately we are not - but today we have the carefully balanced 8 to remind us. The 8 is an adjuster; it brings balance, stability, and just reward. Above all, it represents the adage "you reap what you sow," meting out the perfect reaction to any action.

The 8 based on 35 is rarely neutral when relating to your career, business, or other material concerns. Consequently, it produces a positive or negative experience depending upon previous actions. Today this could mean the happy surprise of a windfall or unexpected opportunity, or disappointment if something did not materialize as you had hoped.

It's a good night for a social evening with friends.

July 30, 2025

CLEARING THE COBWEBS - A 9 DAY

Hello Jonathan, today's numbers are 9, 36, 6, 3

The last 9 day of this 6 month offers an opportunity to do a little house cleaning on the mental and emotional planes, as it inspires you to let go of excess baggage. Today it looks at removing outdated concepts and unproductive doubts. If you are questioning your abilities or past actions, try to take a constructive approach. Remember your achievements first, and then go to work on whatever it is you feel you failed to do.

The 3 plays a minor, but possibly decisive role in today's combination. On the downside, your communication skills may not be as strong as usual. On the upside, the natural optimism and sunny disposition of the 3 could help take the edge off of a potentially serious day.

THE FORCE IS WITH YOU - A 1 DAY

When the 1 rules your daily cycle, it usually delivers a boost of energy. Normally dynamic and goal oriented, today's 1 is based on 3 and 7 - numbers that are impractical, idealistic dreamers. Although the influence of the 1 is still present, the odd numbers it is derived from diminishes its go-getter attitude.

The 3 is imaginative where the 7 is as logical as math. However, contrary to math, the 7 is not constrained to what is "possible". It transcends conventional boundaries through its ability to think in the abstract. In this way, it is both logical and imaginative. The influences today offer the opportunity to produce extraordinary ideas, although some may not be that practical. Use the combination of creative traits and analytical faculty to find creative solutions that work.

It is a good night to let your mind wander. If possible, make it a quiet evening without distractions.

August 1, 2025

INTELLIGENCE & GOOD FORTUNE - AN 8 DAY

Hello Jonathan, today's numbers are 8, 7, 1

Take a number representing wisdom and intelligence, merge it with the number for business and power, and you have a winning team - but only if they give each other room. These are the influences today, when the 8 motivates you to get things moving (and rewards your efforts) and the 7 fine tunes your analytical faculties.

It is a good day for career, business, long-term planning, and working with finances. However, the 8 also tends to balance the scales where needed. Consequently, you may find yourself dealing with the results from past actions - positive or negative.

The 7 and 8 combination is considered "lucky", particularly with being in the right place at the right time. However, relationship issues might be better handled another day, especially if emotions run high.

August 2, 2025

CREATIVITY & EXPANSION - A 9 DAY

Hello Jonathan, today's numbers are 9, 7, 2

The creative, tasteful 9 also has a compassionate side, hence the nickname Mother Teresa. Its influence can widen your worldview, reminding you that no matter who or where you are there is a much larger world beyond your immediate experience.

Today's combination can heighten your curiosity and ability to produce original ideas and solutions. Although others might perceive you as a little aloof - a common trait of the 9 - it is actually a favorable day for romance. Financial matters are also favored, but with a contradiction typical to the 9: the less attached you are to financial gain, the greater your chances of reaping rewards.

The 2 behind the 9 could make you feel a little inhibited, making social events less desirable. It is a better night to share with people you are close to.

August 3, 2025

BE PRODUCTIVE (BY DOING NOTHING) - A 1 DAY

Hello Jonathan, today's numbers are 1, 10, 7, 6

The 1 based on 10 is present today, which could inspire you to make a change or push to make something happen. Although your 7 monthly cycle might have inspired you to seek quiet time more often than usual, today's energy should motivate you to keep moving. It is a day to take charge and perhaps even force issues.

Today's combination sharpens you mentally and enhances your individuality and your originality. Ideas and solutions will permeate the entire month, but today brings an added element that could deliver a positive breakthrough or realization.

If possible, make it quiet evening. Romance and relationship issues will be better supported tomorrow when the gentle 2 rules.

August 4, 2025

INTUITION & DIPLOMACY - A 2 DAY

Hello Jonathan, today's numbers are 2, 11, 7, 5

The combination of 7 and a 2 based on 11 enhances intuition and insight. It also heightens tact and diplomacy, which can help you resolve relationship conflicts. Listen to others and meet them halfway. Cooperation is key.

It is a great day for intellectual discussion and the sharing of ideas. Dealing with relationship issues with your co-workers is also favorable. However, money and business matters might be better supported another day.

Today, just about anyone can become a friend. It is a good day to join a study group, take lessons, or participate in a mind-expanding activity such as playing chess or another mental exercise. If possible, spend the evening with friends.

August 5, 2025

CREATIVITY vs. CONFLICT - A 3 DAY

Hello Jonathan, today's numbers are 3, 12, 7, 4

The upbeat, extroverted 3 is concerned with communication, self-expression, verbal and musical creativity, and innovative ideas. However, when it joins the contemplative, secretive 7, it produces conflicting energies.

The effect of these opposing influences can either raise havoc with your plans or inspire a productive day (if you manage to find a balance between them). Taking 30 minutes early in the day for contemplation or a little quiet time can help you find that balance.

You may find yourself the victim of jealousy, gossip, or envy. If so, today may not be the best time to address it, as you may not be particularly tactful. The day could also deliver a situation where you are tempted to bend the truth to avoid a conflict. Again, take a deep breath and let it pass.

August 6, 2025

STRENGTHEN YOUR FOUNDATION - A 4 DAY

Hello Jonathan, today's numbers are 4, 13, 7, 3

Focus on organizing your environment, balancing your checkbook, and addressing routine duties. It is a good day to pay attention to details. It is not a good day to cut corners.

Today's 4 desires stability and reliability; you may find someone expects something of you today. With two serious numbers (4 and 7) dominating the day it may not be a fun day, but it can move things forward. Contracts and legal issues are supported. Home improvement projects, gardening, and all other forms of improving your surroundings are favored as well.

Health and lifestyle issues may come to the forefront, reminding you of the need to take care of yourself. Discipline and moderation are key. If possible, leave romance and relationship issues to a less pragmatic day.

August 7, 2025

A POSITIVE COMBINATION - A 5 DAY

Just as every number has opposite traits, each number has a particularly suitable buddy. Today, the compatible 5 and 7 dominate the day. Although these numbers are quite different in nature, they get along very well and their combined influence tends to make positive things happen.

The day could have a disorganized feel, and your thinking might be scattered. Nevertheless - like a flying bird catching a treat on the go - you have the opportunity to reap unexpected benefits. Your task is to remain flexible and ready to respond to changes and opportunities.

Romance is highly favored, although you might find not everyone "gets" you, as your numbers today can make you a little rebellious and offbeat. This has the potential to create miscommunication or confusion with others.

August 8, 2025

A CONFLICT OF INTERESTS - A 6 DAY

Hello Jonathan, today's numbers are 6, 15, 7, 1

The influences today are as conflicting as yesterdays were compatible. However, that doesn't necessarily mean it will be a difficult day, just as compatible numbers don't guarantee a great day. Still, today's ruling numbers are polar opposites pulling you in different directions.

As with most days dominated by the 6, people will probably be demanding your attention or needing your help and support. Unfortunately, you may not be in the mood to deal with emotions, engage in small talk, or otherwise respond as expected. Instead, you may find you are a little impatient and easily irritated. Your best approach to these discordant influences is to be as agreeable as possible and avoid the potential for emotional drama.

On the upside, this is a good day for business and financial matters. Legal issues should be easier to manage and any task you can address without too much interaction with others should go smoothly.

August 9, 2025

THIS WAY OR THAT - A 7 DAY

Hello Jonathan, today's numbers are 7, 16, 7, 0

The 7 is dominant as the number ruling both the month and the day. This makes it difficult to predict whether you will adhere to its common traits, or move in the opposite direction. (This applies to personal charts as well, where an individual overwhelmingly influenced by a single number often behaves in a way opposite to the number's typical characteristics.)

Today you could feel like withdrawing from the hustle and bustle as the 7 is normally prone to do, or dive into your day with a vengeance to make considerable progress and perhaps financial gain. There is usually no middle ground.

It is a good night to spend alone or with someone close to you. You could probably use a little "me" time.

August 10, 2025

THE FORCE IS WITH YOU - A 8 DAY

There is an opportunity for progress, and even a breakthrough today. Your personal power and ability to influence others should be stronger than usual. When the 7 teams up with an 8 based on 17 inner strength is enhanced and your self-confidence gets a boost. Even so, to make progress today you will need to dig deep and put forth considerable effort.

Conversely, it is not a good day to gamble or take unnecessary risks. Today's energy is focused on effort, drive, and ambition. Romance and relationship issues should probably be put on the back burner.

August 11, 2025

COMPLETION AND FULFILLMENT - A 9 DAY

With a little imagination and self-reflection you might be able to see yourself as an entity with two control centers: the mind and the heart. The 9 and 7 work a little like that. The combination can make one seem aloof and self-absorbed, when there is actually a genuine desire to understand the deeper meaning of life. (Although much of this plays on a subconscious level as you are busy living your life.)

The 9 extends its love to people and causes around the globe. The 7 is the driving force behind your need to know. Combined, they are a valuable but demanding team. Their influence today will probably contribute to an analytical, inward focus, possibly relating to a global issue you are concerned about. As such, you may not have the best focus for personal issues (relationships, career, finance, and other daily matters). This can lead to a less productive day, but could pay off in intangible ways.

It is a good night to watch the sunset and connect with your deeper feelings.

August 12, 2025

GOALS AND DREAMS - A 1 DAY

Hello Jonathan, today's numbers are 1, 19, 7, 6

Unlike yesterday's more inward focus, your drive and sense of purpose should be strong today, firmly connecting you with the material world. Today's influence is pragmatic and results-oriented. This can bring progress to your career, business, or project.

The downside could be distraction and forgetfulness, particularly for mundane tasks. Pay attention to the little things to avoid forgetting an appointment or mislaying your keys.

The 19 is a Karmic Debt number that challenges your ability to stand on your own. Consider the pros and cons connected to relationships that could chip away at your independence.

August 13, 2025

FRIENDSHIP - A 2 DAY

Hello Jonathan, today's numbers are 2, 20, 7, 5

Today's 2 could make you more sensitive and intuitive than usual, especially during a 7 month. In combination, they bring a heightened ability to read body language and facial expressions.

Others are likely to be drawn to you today, sensing your increased sensitivity to their concerns. This can be helpful at work as well as in your personal life. If you have had a recent dispute with someone close to you, it is a good day to reconcile. The downside of this vulnerable energy is the tendency to be more susceptible to illness, so make healthy choices today.

It is a favorable day to make a good impression on the right person (although you may not notice the results until your next 8 day - six days from today).

Today's emphasis is on feelings so the evening could bring emotional issues to the foreground.

August 14, 2025

UNCONVENTIONAL & ORIGINAL - A 3 DAY

Hello Jonathan, today's numbers are 3, 21, 7, 4

Open, honest communication is important today, and it could help you advance toward a goal or dream. In addition, although expressing yourself is a large part of today's 21/3, so is careful listening and picking up on what might be going unsaid.

Money matters are less favored. They will be better supported tomorrow, when the grounded, down-to-earth 4 arrives. Apart from finances, it is a good day for business, especially if it requires a creative, original approach. Your energy may be a little scattered, but Lady Luck should be on your side.

Romance is highly favored. The 2 and 1 hiding behind the 3 increases your charisma and your chance of meeting someone new.

SLOW AND STEADY - A 4 DAY

Hello Jonathan, today's numbers are 4, 22, 7, 3

With the 4 in play, issues regarding your dependability might arise today. Also, routine matters could demand attention. The keywords today are effort, discipline, and patience.

Things might seem to move slowly, which can make the day feel a little frustrating. Although the 22 behind the 4 is a Master number, when it appears in a short day cycle, it doesn't have enough oomph to fully materialize. This can add to the frustration and cause nervous tension - one day just isn't enough to manifest a big dream, especially on a plodding 4 day.

Fortunately, the deliberate pace of the 22/4 is misleading. You are likely on a path of steady but persistent growth. Use today's stable, practical influence to continue moving forward.

Social events are not favored by the 4. Consider taking care of routine matters instead.

August 16, 2025

A CHANGE IN PERSPECTIVE - A 5 DAY

Hello Jonathan, today's numbers are 5, 23, 7, 2

The current month may have reinforced your recognition that a change is taking place in the way you view your life. Sometimes change isn't about creating new circumstances, but changing the way you view current ones. Realizations and insights often accompany the introspective 7.

When you dream, you view events but you cannot influence them. When you are awake, however, you have the power to influence your environment. Your consciousness and self-awareness - i.e. being awake - is your greatest asset. This is the domain of the 7, which rules all month.

When the 23/5 joins the 7, it throws a firecracker into the mix. Expect the unexpected and stay flexible. Fortunately, your mind should be quick and supple, making it easier to adapt. This is also a good combination for career, business, and financial decisions. Even romance is favored. It is a good night to socialize.

August 17, 2025

A FOCUS ON RELATIONSHIPS - A 6 DAY

Hello Jonathan, today's numbers are 6, 24, 7, 1

When the 6 is based on 24, emotions usually play an important role in both your personal life and work environment.

Today's influence delivers an opportunity to heal and mend conflicts. However, there is also the possibility of becoming the victim of someone's projected guilt or blame. Jealousy and gossip are also more likely under this combination.

Business, finance, and career are favored. Fortunately, the even numbers 2, 4, and 6 tend to be practical even when emotions are involved. Additionally, the potential for advancement is increased when three even numbers are at play.

August 18, 2025

MAKING ROOM FOR THE NEW - A 7 DAY

Hello Jonathan, today's numbers are 7, 25, 7, 0

Vivid dreams often accompany today's combination. If last night's dreams seemed to be conveying a message, take it to heart. A double 7 has the potential to help you see things in a different light and dreams are often the conduit.

You might feel the urge to tidy your environment and pare down non-essentials today, but be careful not to make impulsive decisions that will drastically affect your life.

One of today's 7's is based on 2 and 5 which suggests you may be approached by someone experiencing emotional turmoil who looks to you for stability and advice. If so, you might find you are better at offering rational, analytical advice than at connecting on an emotional level.

Romance and social events are not well favored. It is a better night for contemplation and taking time for yourself.

August 19, 2025

PLANNING & FOLLOWING UP - AN 8 DAY

Progress and success are possible when the 8 steps into the picture. Today the 8 is based on 26, which increases the likelihood that other people's participation will be a big part of a positive outcome. Financial issues are often affected positively under the clever, watchful eye of the 8. You can help by paying close attention to the day's events - be decisive and prepared to accept added responsibility.

Be aware that you might be a little forgetful, and may have difficulty keeping track of details, so make a note of important appointments and duties. You could also feel more impatient and stubborn than usual. This is the negative side of the 26. Even so, try to stay open to valuable advice.

Today's combination is not the most favorable for romance. A focus on material concerns will be more fruitful.

August 20, 2025

DISCORD VERSUS AWARENESS - A 9 DAY

Hello Jonathan, today's numbers are 9, 27, 7, 2

Misunderstandings are common when the 9 is based on the 2 and 7. The inwardly focused, critical 7 has trouble hearing what it doesn't want to hear. This could lead to a confrontation with a loved one or co-worker, creating inner and outer turmoil.

On a more upbeat note, the dominant 9 - the most globally conscious of all numbers - can expand your awareness. It is usually positive for career and issues concerning justice and compassion. Financial matters, however, are not well supported. Also, impulsive decisions should be avoided.

It is a good day to focus on the greater good in your work and private life, and nurture your interest in broader issues. Consider volunteering for a worthwhile project.

You may in an especially generous mood today, but there is a difference between being generous and being gullible, so be discerning.

August 21, 2025

HONEST ASSESMENT - A 1 DAY

Hello Jonathan, today's numbers are 1, 28, 10, 7, 6

Today's number sequence could challenge your sense of self-sufficiency and confidence. This could include a situation where you are forced to rely on your own strength and ability, possibly to a degree that makes you uncomfortable. If so, consider facing it head on even if your first reaction is avoidance. Difficult circumstances provide opportunities to practice independence which can boost your confidence and character.

The 1 based on 28 often delivers a message through blunt honesty, a no-nonsense assessment, or a confrontation. Again, while uncomfortable, it could lead you to an important self-realization.

It is a favorable night for social interaction.

August 22, 2025

Hello ~first~, today's numbers are 2, 29, 11, 7, 5

Hello Jonathan, today's numbers are 2, 29, 11, 7, 5

The 2 can be a little melodramatic, and even more so when it is based on 11 and 29. Your irritation threshold might be lower today as well. This could present a problem, since the day is likely to bring unsolicited advice and comments from people around you. On the plus side, you should be able to read people more accurately than usual, a side effect of being particularly intuitive and sensitive.

It is a good day to share your experiences and feelings openly with those close to you, but be mindful of the way you express yourself. When emotions rule, as they do today, impulsive or careless communication can have long-term negative results.

Business and finance are not as favored. If possible, leave important decisions for another day.

August 23, 2025

SERIOUSLY PLAYFUL - A 3 DAY

Hello Jonathan, today's numbers are 3, 30, 7, 4

Today's numbers get along well. The serious, spiritual 7 and the creative, extroverted 3 are the proverbial example of opposites that attract. Their influence will likely affect your mood in the same way.

One facet today has a serious, somewhat introverted undertone. This could inspire contemplation, meditation, prayer, or simply daydreaming about the mysteries of life.

On the surface, however, you will probably appear upbeat and optimistic. The 3 can enhance your charisma, wit, and humor, which is favorable for socializing and romance. A positive attitude can even boost your immune system.

The downside of this combination could be a shortened attention span and lack of focus. Hence, financial and business matters might be better supported five days from now, when the 8 comes back into play.

KEEP THINGS SIMPLE - A 4 DAY

Hello Jonathan, today's numbers are 4, 31, 7, 3

Today could bring a feeling that things are more complicated than they really are, so try not to over-think matters. This number sequence can also bring self-doubt. It will likely be a demanding, busy day - but probably a little boring. The 4 concerns itself with routine duties, stability, predictability, and persistent, plodding effort.

Fortunately, today's hardworking traits bring an increased potential for growth in your career, business, or project, and long-postponed chores can be completed. Still, you may find the day to be draining. People around you might not help, as expectations and demands on your time could produce additional strain.

It is a good night to spend with people close to you. Possibilities for meeting a new friend or romantic partner also increase under this combination.

OPPORTUNITY KNOCKS - A 5 DAY

The 5 dominates today, so the pervading energy is about expansion through chaos. This rebellious, adventurous number can affect your material world by disrupting the established order, so things may not go as planned.

Conversely, the number 7 dominates the whole month. This influence also expands your world, but it focuses on the intellectual and spiritual/non-material aspect. Together, they could make for an interesting day, where the keywords 'letting go' and 'surrender' apply equally well to your career and your relationships. The easier you adapt to changing circumstance, the better this combination can deliver its innovative influence. Try to be versatile, and don't hesitate.

New people, a social event, or romance could broaden your perspective. Be mindful, however, that the 5 has a risky, irresponsible side regarding self-discipline. You may want to keep a tighter rein on your favorite indulgence.

August 26, 2025

HOME & FAMILY - A 6 DAY

Hello Jonathan, today's numbers are 6, 33, 7, 1

Family matters and work around the house could be the focus of your attention today. Serious conversations could surface, as you may be the shoulder others seek to cry on. Be responsive, but don't allow others to take advantage of your good nature. The 6 is generous - sometimes to a fault - and pushing the limits of this generosity can leave you feeling used or resentful. Also remember too much involvement from you can turn into interference.

Your professional or project-related life should be positively affected today. The Master number 33 delivers ideas and solutions. However, financial matters would be better supported the day after tomorrow, when the 8 rules.

SHARP, CREATIVE, AND A LITTLE AWKWARD - A 7 DAY

Hello Jonathan, today's numbers are 7, 34, 7, 0

A 7 month tends to make us less social. This may feel even more the case today, with the 7 in both the month and day position.

Today's double 7 could make you feel a little out of sorts, low on energy, and perhaps easily bored - with everyone and everything. If so, do your best to stay as open and responsive as you can, but look for an opportunity to create a little "me" time. Take a walk, sit near a window, or curl up with your thoughts or a good book.

Fortunately, today's combination sharpens the mind, heightens imagination, and helps you think outside the box. It is an ideal team for discovering unique solutions and producing original ideas, so keep a notepad handy.

It is a good night for a quiet evening. If you are in a social situation, you may want to keep a low profile. The 7 can seem distracted and a little awkward.

READY, SET, GO... - AN 8 DAY

Hello Jonathan, today's numbers are 8, 35, 7, 1

It is nearing the end of your 7 month. As luck would have it, you get four days during a 7 month when the 8 dominates the daily cycles, as if you are being prepared to take advantage of the upcoming dynamic 8 month.

Today's 8 is based on 35, which adds a positive, upbeat, and flexible energy to the goal-oriented, visionary, and pragmatic 8. It is a good day to focus on business and financial matters - pay bills, plan, and collect what is owed you.

You could also feel more assertive than usual. Trust your personal power; it is not a day to be timid. Your sense of timing should be heightened, so Lady Luck will be on your side. However, it is not a good day to make impulsive decisions.

Today's challenge might lie in taking care of details. This combination can make you a little forgetful, so keep track of your keys and other important items. It is a day to focus on big plans and ideas, not the small steps that get you there.

August 29, 2025

LETTING GO - A 9 DAY

Hello Jonathan, today's numbers are 9, 36, 7, 2

Today's 9 is based on 36, infusing good judgment and creativity into an otherwise flat day, although you may not feel very energetic.

This combination can inspire you to move past outdated habits and unproductive situations. Perhaps you will become aware of a project or relationship that hasn't lived up to its promise. If so, letting go of unfruitful or unhealthy circumstances often delivers relief rather than regret.

Although the chatty 3 shows up as part of the 36, it also appears as a challenge, which can make you a little clumsy verbally. The advice is to think before you speak.

You may seem distant and distracted today, which can cause trouble if you are in a relatively new relationship. Spending the evening in a light-hearted, social environment could be just what you need.

August 30, 2025

Hello ~first~, today's numbers are 1, 37, 10, 7, 6

Hello Jonathan, today's numbers are 1, 37, 10, 7, 6

You are almost at the end of a 7 month, which may have been a difficult period. This is not due to it being particularly demanding or unlucky, but because it likely drew you inward into a realm the material world doesn't especially appreciate.

If you found opportunities to reflect on life's Big Questions, and thought about your own life and circumstances, chances are the month went relatively smoothly. Conversely, if you were unable to satisfy the need for self-examination and contemplation this month's influence required, you may have felt an underlying sense of dissatisfaction, as if something was lacking.

Today, the influence of the 1 can take the edge off of the questioning aspect of the month by infusing it with a dynamic, goal-oriented energy. This increases the potential to make it one of the most productive days of the month.

In spite of the day's bold energy, you may want to make the evening a quiet one. Perhaps watch the sunset, and take time for one more dose of self-reflection.

MASTER NUMBERS RULE - A 2 DAY

Hello Jonathan, today's numbers are 2, 38, 11, 7, 5

The two numbers most likely to impact you mentally and spiritually are the 7 and the 11, although for different reasons. The first infuses your mind with the desire to know and understand - anything and everything. The second is tuned to the intuitive, our most basic level of understanding. Today they share the stage.

This combination can make you question facts you previously accepted at face value - and you might sense there is more than meets the eye. Try not to become so distracted by the day's activities, that you fail to hear these inner voices.

Relationship issues can be a little tricky because, there too, nagging questions can bubble to the surface. Business and career, however, tend to do well under these clever numbers, so they are good places to put your focus.

Although romance isn't favored, being with close friends or family members could be just what you need.

September 1, 2025

TIME TO CLEAN HOUSE - A 9 DAY

Hello Jonathan, today's numbers are 9, 8, 1

The 9 rules your daily cycle today and asks you to finalize... (fill in the blank). Ask yourself if there is a project, unproductive habit, unused item or unhealthy relationship it is time to let go of. The 9 supports cutting detrimental ties and clearing out mental, emotional, and physical clutter in our lives.

The results-oriented, ambitious 8, and the idealistic, sacrificing 9 compete for dominance today. The conflicting influences could create an underlying sense of insecurity, fear, or self-doubt. If so, tomorrow's dynamic energy should help you move past it.

It is a good night for a social evening with friends, especially if it has been an emotional day.

September 2, 2025

GO GET IT - A 1 DAY

Hello Jonathan, today's numbers are 1, 10, 8, 7

Today's energy is focused, decisive, and confident. This month you will have three more days with the ambitious, goal-oriented 8 and the driven, forceful energy of the 1. Use it to advance your goals.

It is a favorable day for career, business, planning, financial decisions, and progress. However, effort will be required as well.

Moral and spiritual issues often come to the surface when the 7 undertakes the challenging role of the bridge between these numbers. Normally, this number inspires insight and an awareness of the deeper aspects of life. However, its negative side tends to ignore spiritual and philosophical interests, making it somewhat superficial instead. At its extreme, the 7 can arouse greed and an obsession with money.

If today's events place you in a position where you have an opportunity to gain materially but have to compromise your moral standards, be mindful of your choice.

September 3, 2025

A GENTLE WIND - A 2 DAY

Hello Jonathan, today's numbers are 2, 11, 8, 6

Although you might wake to intense, graphic dreams this morning, this promises to be a gentler day than yesterday.

The sometimes overbearing 8 is mellowed by the gentle 2, creating a more balanced energy. It makes you more sensitive and intuitive, especially when the 2 is based on 11. Use it to listen to others and mend disputes.

This is a goal-oriented, business-minded month, and today's enhanced intuition heightens your ability to recognize potential opportunities and make smart decisions.

The 2 pushes relationship matters to the surface, so an issue with a family member, friend, or co-worker may throw a wrench into an otherwise calm day. (If so, it could be the same issue that played yesterday and the day before.)

Try to take advantage of the slower pace today - relax and enjoy yourself this evening.

A DAY FOR WORK AND PLAY - A 3 DAY

Hello Jonathan, today's numbers are 3, 12, 8, 5

No two numbers are as opposite in nature as the power seeking, results-driven 8 (your current month's number) and the playful, creative, careless 3 dominating the day's cycle. The 3 might inspire you to take a day off or find a way to take a short break from your routine. However, work that is creative, verbal, and involves self-expression is quite favored.

If someone needs convincing, it is a good day to give it your best shot. This applies to just about everything: relationship issues, renegotiating a mortgage, or convincing your boss you deserve a raise. Financial matters (other than asking for a raise) are not well supported. They might be handled more effectively tomorrow - or even better, five days from now on your next 8 day.

September 5, 2025

STRIKE WHILE THE IRON IS HOT - A 4 DAY

Hello Jonathan, today's numbers are 4, 13, 8, 4

Several numbers in place today could help move you closer to your goal. The efficient 4 supports taking care of details, organizing, and staying focused. The visionary 8 helps you see the big picture and prioritize where best to put your efforts.

The only downside is in playing it safe and trotting down the same path, afraid of the uncertain. This could make you miss out on an opportunity. Courage and a willingness to try something new are the necessary ingredients to take full advantage of today's combination.

Today's influence focuses on your professional and practical life. Relationship issues and romance are not as favored.

September 6, 2025

FREEDOM & RESPONSIBILITY - A 5 DAY

Hello Jonathan, today's numbers are 5, 14, 8, 3

The dynamic 5 can deliver unexpected changes and events, so things may not go as planned today. Because it appears in an 8 month, this will probably be most strongly felt in your career or project.

Today's combination carries the potential for considerable promise - as long as you are flexible and adapt to changing circumstances. Fortunately, you should be even more versatile and quick thinking than usual - exactly the traits required today.

Today is favorable for finding solutions, but you might have more support implementing your ideas three days from now when a more forceful number sequence is in place.

A challenging characteristic of the 5 is its lack of discipline and a tendency to overindulge. Keep the irresponsible side of this number on a leash today, but have fun tonight; it is a good night to be social.

September 7, 2025

EVEN NUMBERS HAVE IT - A 6 DAY

Hello Jonathan, today's numbers are 6, 15, 8, 2

Domestic matters such as decorating, gardening, or home-repair could attract your attention today. The 8 and 6 combination focuses on practical matters, particularly those concerning home and family. Legal and moral issues could also surface.

When even numbers dominate it usually bodes well for career, business, and other project-related endeavors. In combination, today's numbers tend to be lucky in finance as well. On the downside, you may be a little insensitive and easily distracted, so be mindful when communicating with others.

A 6 night is perfect for spending time with family and friends.

September 8, 2025

REVELATION - A 7 DAY

Hello Jonathan, today's numbers are 7, 16, 8, 1

In Tarot, the 16th card is The Fallen Tower. It predicts destruction, but also rebirth. Today, on a smaller and less dramatic level, a similar influence is present which could play out in a number of ways. Perhaps a truth will come to light that brings some type of downfall but ultimately turns out to be positive. Whatever the circumstance, today's combination could open the door to a new opportunity, most likely in career, business, or finance.

Sometimes, this influence affects us through a mental or spiritual process instead of a practical area. If so, it will probably come in the form of doubt, or questioning long-held beliefs. Your confidence may be a little shaken, but relief should replace any lingering uncertainty by the end of the day.

It may not be the best night for social situations.

September 9, 2025

A STRANGE MIX - AN 8 DAY

Hello Jonathan, today's numbers are 8, 17, 8, 0

Today, the 8 rules both the daily and the monthly cycle, putting financial and business issues on the front burner. Double-check transactions and make sure you haven't forgotten anything. This combination suggests taking a cautious, conservative approach.

With the double 8 in play, you may find news (positive or negative) that clears a debt or rewards past efforts. Your daily cycle is based on 1 and 7, which creates a strange mix of influences that may put you in a reflective state of mind. It is a subtle indication that changes are afoot but have not materialized, or even been set into motion. If so, these changes likely concern your professional life and point to the need to make an important choice either late next month (when the 9 rules) or in the first two weeks of the following month (when the 1 takes center stage).

You may want to keep a low profile at work and avoid relationship issues today.

September 10, 2025

INNER HOUSECLEANING - A 9 DAY

The 9 dominates today, inspiring you to clear emotional debris from past experiences. It's a day for inner house cleaning. Take time to reflect on thoughts or emotions that are holding you back, and make an effort to let go and move on.

Today's low energy could make you feel a little lethargic and unmotivated, and perhaps disconnected from others. This could make it more difficult to deal with the minor practical issues that surface. On the upside, today's 9 hides an 18, a number that usually bodes well for finance and business.

You may want to make it a quiet, early evening.

A FRESH START - A 1 DAY

Hello Jonathan, today's numbers are 1, 19, 10, 8, 7

Life is a process of cycles within cycles, but there is nothing repetitive about it. Each cycle is new and builds on what came before. Today, with the 1 in charge, you have an opportunity to set a new goal or move a goal you had given up on back to center stage.

A 1 day can inspire new ideas and goals, but it requires courage and ambition to see them through. Fortunately, these are the defining attributes of the 1. Use the next nine days to understand and expand today's vision, and nurture it throughout the following month. Today, the day's cycle is ruled by the 1, but the entire month after next will be driven by this promising influence, delivering a 30-day cycle with high potential.

Although today's numbers increase your motivation, you could still feel a bit aimless. If so, try to focus on something small but achievable that moves you closer to your goal. Even small efforts build on themselves.

September 12, 2025

STREAMLINING & GARNERING SUPPORT - A 2 DAY

Hello Jonathan, today's numbers are 2, 20, 8, 6

When we change direction or priorities, we often encounter opposition. Today there is the possibility for friction to develop with someone you know, either based on their genuine concern for you or something less virtuous. If so, do your best to diffuse the tension. With the sensitive, intuitive 11 in charge, you should be well equipped for the job.

Every number has a negative side as well. In its desire to please everyone, the 2 is sometimes tempted to indulge in gossip or tell white lies. Focus on the harmonious, cooperative traits of this number and use today's influence to bring you closer to people you care about.

It is a favorable day for career, situations that require negotiation, and settling disagreements. Even romance is favored.

FINDING SUPPORT - A 3 DAY

Hello Jonathan, today's numbers are 3, 12, 8, 5

As mentioned in your daily forecast two days ago, you are likely in the beginning stages of a change in direction. Today the numbers support your seeking out the right people to discuss your goals with. If you find the audience you are looking for, be frank and open about your goals and your needs. The 3 is charismatic and verbally gifted. It enhances your creativity and originality, and brightens your outlook - all attributes that should help. Be mindful to stay focused, however, as it can also make you a little superficial and scattered.

Today's focus is less favorable for handling important business and financial matters. Tomorrow should be a better day, when the stable, dependable 4 returns.

Save the evening for the fun, social 3. Romance is also favored.

September 14, 2025

MASTER YOUR POTENTIAL - A 4 DAY

Hello Jonathan, today's numbers are 4, 22, 8, 4

In Numerology, the 22 is considered a Master number (as are 11 and 33). Disciplined, focused, and capable of great effort, the 4 based on 22 inspires you to aim high. Today's combination asks you to dig deeper and dream bigger.

Since this is also an 8 month, it may be a day you look back to and realize it was the day you had that big idea, made a crucial connection, found an ingenious solution, or had another break through.

Sometimes, the diligent 4 tends to get mired in the details, which is counterproductive to the larger vision of the 22. Broaden your focus or you could lose yourself in routine tasks rather than pursuing a more rewarding goal.

Relationships and romance take a back seat under this combination.

September 15, 2025

BURNING CALORIES - A 5 DAY

Hello Jonathan, today's numbers are 5, 23, 8, 3

With the 5 kicking up dust and obscuring things, today's energy could be a little hectic and produce unexpected changes.

You may need to make quick decisions and use your leadership skills. Fortunately, the 5 sharpens the mind and heightens your senses, proving that life doesn't present situations without the supportive traits we need to handle them.

Twists and turns in your relationships might surface as well. When the 5 is based on 23 it can affect any area of life. On the plus side, this applies to opportunities as well as challenges: business, finance, career, and romance are all favored - as long as you are versatile and quick enough to meet the moment.

It is a good day to consider healthy changes in your diet or lifestyle, and a good night for socializing.

September 16, 2025

SHOULD I STAY OR SHOULD I GO? - A 6 DAY

Hello Jonathan, today's numbers are 6, 24, 8, 2

Today's number sequence (all even numbers) has peculiar and contradictory attributes. One aspect leans toward sacrifice and commitment, while the other desires independence. In other words, today is about love, harmony, and predictability, versus ego and adventure.

People will likely be drawn to you today, and friends or family may come looking for advice or a shoulder to cry on. Co-workers may look to share their secrets with you. Try to display patience, and sacrifice a little time to comfort people you care about. (Although the 6 usually finds this easy, it may be more of a strain today due to the somewhat self-centered influence that is also present.)

Legal or government issues can arise under this combination. However, the 8 and 6 makes a good team for your career, business, or project. It assists in overcoming obstacles and finding breakthroughs. Romance is also favored.

September 17, 2025

PUSH & PULL - A 7 DAY

Hello Jonathan, today's numbers are 7, 25, 8, 1

Today is the second withdrawn, contemplative 7 day (there will be one more) in a month that leans toward external, material growth.

This odd and serious number tends to pull us inside to the more intangible aspects of life. It is the seeker of knowledge, the one that desires to see behind the facade. Although it tends to lower your ambition and make you more easily distracted, it is also an excellent strategist and problem solver. Today, it could deliver a eureka moment that boosts your business or career.

Romance and relationship issues are not favored. Today's introspective nature is better spent analyzing your circumstances, intellectual pursuits, or quiet reflection.

September 18, 2025

BALANCE & HARMONY - AN 8 DAY

Hello Jonathan, today's numbers are 8, 26, 8, 0

Shaped like the universal symbol for infinity set on end, the 8 is primarily concerned with balance. It often delivers results based on past actions, be they positive or negative. It is concerned with righting wrongs, restoring justice, and dispatching rewards.

When it appears in a daily cycle and is based on 26, chances increase for you to hear from a long-lost friend, receive news from a distant locale, or reunite with a friend or family member.

Since the 8 also rules your monthly cycle, there is also the possibility of a new opportunity, financial gain, or a noticeable advancement in your progress. More often than not, the Karmic 8 brings reward of some kind.

The 1 and 7 are also in play today, adding a 'spiritual' touch as well as a boost in self-confidence.

September 19, 2025

MORE THAN MEETS THE EYE - A 9 DAY

When the 9 makes an appearance, it indicates we are at the end of a cycle, in this case a short nine day cycle. This can cause low energy, so you may not be inspired to make much effort today. (It is unfortunate that the 9 doesn't always fall on a weekend. When it does, consider yourself lucky.)

With today's 9 based on 2 and 7, discord with people you are close to can be resolved more easily. This is especially true when emotions are involved. Today's combination can help you take a rational, reasoned approach instead of dwelling on your feelings

Politically savvy and able to shine light on the obscure or hidden, it is a good day to deal with legal matters as well. Emotional issues are better left to another day - allow your mind to take care of business and leave matters of the heart alone for now.

September 20, 2025

MOVE FORWARD - A 1 DAY

Hello Jonathan, today's numbers are 1, 28, 10, 8, 7

This should be a good day to execute plans you have been considering over the last few days or weeks. Although the 8 and 1 combination does not support gambling or risky behavior, it tends to be quite favorable for well-researched financial and business decisions.

The downside of today's combination could be a lack of support or finding that a particular asset or object is no longer available - someone or something may not be there when you need them. Also, keep an eye on your belongings, as you might be more forgetful than usual.

You may appear a little overly confident to some people today. Strive to remain humble and open to the advice of others.

September 21, 2025

LOVE AND MONEY - A 2 DAY

Hello Jonathan, today's numbers are 2, 29, 11, 8, 6

Sometimes money and friendship work well together - when you are in a position to help a friend, or form a profitable business partnership, for example. However, there are times when mixing money and close relationships can lead to conflict.

Today, with a 2 based on 11 in an 8 month, the latter issue could arise. It may not be about money specifically, but it is likely something materially related. Additionally, emotions could run high, making communication difficult. Fortunately, intuition and sensitivity are enhanced under this combination, which can help you manage tricky situations (as long as you're careful to keep your emotions in check).

You may feel a little emotionally and physically drained later today. A quiet evening might be just what you need.

September 22, 2025

TEETER TOTTER - A 3 DAY

Hello Jonathan, today's numbers are 3, 30, 8, 5

When the 3 dominates, self-expression, enhanced creativity, and a clever sense of humor are enhanced. However, it can also make you inefficient and easily distracted. Make an effort to stay focused and use today's original, innovative energy to find solutions and generate new ideas.

A less desirable trait of the 3, especially when it is based on 30, is its difficulty distinguishing between lead balloons and those that can fly. Be sure to take a careful, reasoned approach to your ideas; however, when you believe your plan has merit, move forward with confidence.

Today's number sequence (3 day and 8 month) has conflicting influences. The 8 seeks balance while the 3 is impulsive and does not consider consequences. As a result, the day will have its ups and downs, moving back and forth from enthusiasm and optimism to glumness and self-doubt.

GOING THE EXTRA MILE - A 4 DAY

Hello Jonathan, today's numbers are 4, 31, 8, 4

As Gurdjieff said, nothing is more likely to bring you material success and spiritual contentment than extra effort. The Russian Master believed strongly that doing more than is expected or necessary is the road to success.

With the rather demanding 4 (based on 31) in charge, you are expected to put your nose to the grindstone and deliver. This can bring tangible, practical results, as well as a feeling of accomplishment and personal power. It can also bring you to the attention of people important to your career or project. Today is about effort, trustworthiness, and commitment. Anything less is likely to backfire.

Spending the evening with friends may be exactly what you need to offset a demanding day.

September 24, 2025

IT ONLY FEELS RANDOM - A 5 DAY

Hello Jonathan, today's numbers are 5, 32, 8, 3

The 5 based on 32 can bring a few ups and downs in the form of unexpected changes and what can feel like random events.

On the plus side, it helps you to be more adaptable, quick-witted, and mentally sharp. These are the essential attributes needed to take advantage of today's dynamic energy and potential for opportunity. Stay flexible and ready to act.

Your social skills and the ability to promote yourself should also be heightened. This number sequence is great for people in sales and other fields where interacting with others is a must.

Today's combination can make you a little accident-prone, so pay extra attention to your surroundings.

September 25, 2025

TAKE CONTROL - A 6 DAY

Hello Jonathan, today's numbers are 6, 33, 8, 2

Today's 6 is based on 33, bringing relationships and romance to the forefront, especially where healing and counseling are needed. Perhaps you will encounter a situation where your verbal skills are needed to uplift and motivate someone you care about.

Even numbers tend to work well for career and progress in all practical areas, but they leave little room for play, daydreaming, or "me" time. This is a day to get things done; save the daydreaming for tomorrow.

Although the 6 is warm and social, the odd numbers it needs to make social events favorable are missing. Today it is probably better to share time with family and very close friends.

September 26, 2025

A BREAK FROM PRACTICAL MATTERS - A 7 DAY

Hello Jonathan, today's numbers are 7, 34, 8, 1

Today's traits are opposite of yesterday's sensible, realistic influences. A 7 based on 34 awakens the idealist, the philosopher, and the dreamer in you. It inspires introspection and the pursuit of spiritual or philosophical understanding.

Due to the internal focus of the day you might be a little inattentive, so exercise caution when driving or handling machinery. Although today's influence is neutral for practical matters (not negative, but not particularly rewarding) you may want to leave business and finance for another day when your mind is more tuned to handle such matters.

It is a good night to spend alone or to share thoughts with someone close to you.

September 27, 2025

RIDE THE WAVE - AN 8 DAY

Hello Jonathan, today's numbers are 8, 35, 8, 0

Today's focus is on getting things done and taking advantage of opportunities, especially those pertaining to business, career, finance, and other material concerns. It's a day to get out there and make yourself known. Progress is possible in all areas.

Issues with family or friends can arise under this combination. Due to the "independent" streak present today, tact and diplomacy may not be your strong suit, so try not to force your point of view on others (even if your intention is genuine).

It is a good night to rekindle the excitement in relationships that may have become a little routine.

September 28, 2025

SHEDDING SKIN - A 9 DAY

Hello Jonathan, today's numbers are 9, 36, 8, 1

With a 9 based on 36 present at the tail end of an 8 month, you may feel as if you are struggling against the wind. This could lead you to underestimate the progress you have made over the past few weeks. Also, it may be difficult to judge some of those advances, since they may not bear fruit for a month or more.

Today's combination suggests the need to let go of something (although it can also bring self-doubt or fear, which can make this difficult). If you find yourself questioning your accomplishments, look back and appreciate the steps you have taken toward progress. Try not to be too critical or push yourself too hard today.

The evening should bring an improved outlook. It is a good night to socialize.

September 29, 2025

A FINAL PUSH - A 1 DAY

For the fourth and last time this month, the 1 takes center stage to push you as far as you are willing to go. If you felt a little sluggish yesterday, today's driven energy should help get you back on your feet.

This goal-oriented 1 is based on 3 and 7, infusing communication and strategic insight into its ambitious attitude. This has the potential to impress others and make them more likely to support your efforts. However, it is not a day to sit back and let others do the work. You need to take charge and be in control as much as possible.

Finance, business, and career are all favored. Nevertheless, keep your cards close to your chest - the chatty, reckless 3 can be a little too forthcoming with information.

Emotional issues and romance would be better supported another day.

September 30, 2025

FEELINGS - A 2 DAY

Hello Jonathan, today's numbers are 2, 38, 11, 8, 6

Pay attention to your intuition today; your instincts may be more on point than your rational side.

Love, romance, emotion, compassion, intuition, sensitivity - all matters of the heart - tend to be felt more intensely when the 2 is based on 38 and 11. You will probably be called upon to use these qualities more than once today. Others may seek your advice or simply desire your attention.

Premonitions are more likely with this combination, and an early morning dream could also offer insight.

Career is favored, largely due to your ability to connect with others and smooth egos where needed. It is a favorable day to negotiate (perhaps convince your boss you need a raise or deserve more responsibility).

A social evening might be just what you need. Romance is highly favored.
